

PhD position(s) in Operational Research and Optimization at The University of Edinburgh

Edinburgh Research Group in Optimization

<http://www.maths.ed.ac.uk/ERGO>

is looking for highly motivated PhD students interested in working on new exciting topics in the area of Operational Research / Optimization / Mathematical Programming.

Starting date: September 2011

An ideal candidate will have

- outstanding overall academic record
- mathematical maturity
- computational experience
- English fluency

Further information and online application forms can be found at:

<http://www.maths.ed.ac.uk/pg/prosp.shtml>

It is recommended that interested prospective applicants send a brief motivational letter, detailed CV, university transcript and four letters of reference to the email address below prior to sending the full application. Informal enquiries prior to sending these documents are welcome.

In order to take advantage of all funding opportunities, send your files by January 17, 2011. Applications will be accepted until February 15, 2011.

Peter Richtarik, PhD
Lecturer / Assistant Professor
School of Mathematics
University of Edinburgh
6317 JCMB, King's Buildings
Edinburgh, EH9 3JZ
peter.richtarik@ed.ac.uk