

Analyst (Transactions & Restructuring)

KPMG Slovensko spol. s r.o.

KPMG in Slovakia is seeking outstanding candidates with suitable competencies to help us navigate our clients through critical M&A and restructuring minefields. KPMG offers a unique environment for people who are willing to learn and grow.

The successful candidate will become part of Transactions & Restructuring team and will participate on engagements including, but not limited to:

- Mergers and acquisitions, disposals, negotiations and acquisition support
- Valuations for transactions involving the sale or purchase of companies, mergers, joint ventures, re-organizations and financial statements purposes
- Financial modelling, the preparation and evaluation of business plans and feasibility studies
- Restructuring of existing capital or debt structures

Responsibilities

- Providing engagement support to all senior team members and managers
- Taking ownership of all research, both primary and secondary
- Providing insightful analytical inputs for the project (market and industry sector)
- Producing articulate and concise reports on the findings of the research, taking ownership of the production of final reports
- Preparing and analyzing financial statements and financial models

Competencies

- An excellent command of written and spoken English
- Highly detail orientated and extremely accurate
- Strong working knowledge of MS Excel and Powerpoint to prepare financial models and reports
- Highly capable of refining, analysing and interpreting financial data into manageable information
- Able to investigate and research designated subject matter
- Problem solving skills
- Capable of thinking outside the box
- Strong accounting skills
- Understanding of basic valuation concepts and corporate finance issues

Interpersonal skills

- Confident and friendly approach
- Excellent team playing ability
- Ambitious
- Highly driven
- Taking ownership
- Diligent
- Prepared to work the hours required of the role
- Flexible and adaptable
- Able to work on multiple engagements in tight deadlines

Contract type

Full-time employment

Other benefits

- Unique opportunity to become a part of a young and dynamic team
- International environment, opportunity to work in a global company
- Possibility for personal growth
- Practicing English on a day-to-day basis either in written or verbal form
- Motivating remuneration package
- Other social benefits

In case of interest, please find our Online application form here.