

CERGE-EI Competition for University Students

New Economic Talent 2014

Did you recently write an interesting paper in any area of economics?
Do you study math, physics or engineering, but your work has implications for economics? Submit your paper to our competition open to Bachelor's and Master's students and present your ideas. Get feedback from leading economic scholars and gain ideas and contacts for your future research.

Prize: $1,000 USD, a trip to the Global Development Network conference to present the winning paper, and VIP tickets to CERGE-EI's special events

.....

Apply at www.cerge-ei.cz/talent

Deadline: April 15, 2014

The competition is organized by the Center for Economic Research and Graduate Education – Economics Institute (CERGE-EI), a joint workplace of Charles University in Prague and the Economic Institute of the Academy of Sciences, ranked among the top 3% of research institutions worldwide according to SSRN. Nadace CERGE-EI is a proud sponsor.