

Job Title: IT Business Analyst (temporary contract)

Reference Code 18642 - Posted 19/07/2016 - Slovakia - Slovakia - Bratislava - (Information Technology; Business Transformation) - Temporary Full-Time Employee - Temporary Employee

IT Business Analyst (temporary contract)

Slovakia - Bratislava

Corporate Title: Temporary Employee

Division: Information Technology

Department: CCIW-Finance IT (50005520)

Recruiter: Sona Pavlovkinova

About the role

- Help gather, document and clarify business requirements
- Support business with cost allocation process regarding Cost Transparency SAP solution
- Participate in creating and refining technical specification documents.
- Work closely with programmers in the realisation phase and ensure correct understanding and implementation of business requirements
- Develop a working understanding of the business applications and the functional processes they support
- Develop a good understanding of the business functions and related processes
- Work on sub-projects and change requests together with a project lead or expert business analyst
- Prepare test cases, carry out IT testing and participate in UAT
- Contribution to the respective change management process
- High level of maintenance and support. Guarantee a high application availability

About the team

The position holder is accountable for supporting and contributing to IT solutions which meet the strategic, financial and operational needs of Swiss Re stakeholders and to support business partners. Main focus will be to support business stakeholders and run Cost Transparency IT solution leveraging SAP technology. Cost Transparency aims to provide high transparency of cost origin, service consumption and cost allocation rules for better business steering.

About You

- Master degree in IT, financial or business field
- 2+ years or relevant work experience
- Very good oral and written communication skills in English
- Strong analytical and problem solving skills
- Good finance, accounting skills and cost allocation process understanding would be an asset
- Basic understanding of following SAP modules: FI, CO
- Basic understanding of following SAP transactions: KSU5, KSUB, SM37, GR35.
- Basic understanding of UC4 Job Scheduling would be an asset
- Basic understand of SAP Business Objects analysis would be an asset
- Experience in IT project work (especially as IT business analyst) would be an asset
- High level of abstraction, fast understanding and conceptual thinking
- Team player able to deliver high performance when working in the team but also when working independently
- Good understanding of the key aspects of the application lifecycle such as planning, designing, implementing, testing and releasing new versions
- Experience in the area of application integration, database and reporting
- Good knowledge of MS Office and SQL
- Good communication and presentation skills.
- Diligent and accurate working style
- Ability to analyse and solve business and IT issues
- Ability to work under pressure
- Flexible and openness for new tasks with mind set for continuous learning.

