

Prague Economic Meeting 2011

Call for Papers

Scholars from Central European and international institutions are invited to present their unpublished research in all areas of economics - theoretical, empirical, experimental, institutional, or policy-oriented. The main objective of this meeting is to foster contacts and lasting academic cooperation among regional and international economists. Young economists, graduate students and post-docs are particularly encouraged to apply.

Plenary lectures: Ľuboš Pástor, University of Chicago, Jan Švejnar, University of Michigan and CERGE-EI, and Adam Szeidl, University of California, Berkeley.

Conference date: June 16-18, 2011.

Conference venue: CERGE-EI, Prague (www.cerge-ei.cz)
